Conditions

- The existence of a policy, institutional and accountability (including monitoring and evaluation system) framework that commits the country to contribute to sustainable development, in partnership with developing countries, through the use of public resources, as well as evidence of political commitments in line with the DAC's mandate and international agreements.
- An accepted measure of effort in providing official development assistance, for example ODA/GNI ratio over 0.20% or ODA volume above USD 100 million, or a time-bound commitment to work towards such levels;
- Provision of information on its alignment with the OECD legal instruments under the responsibility of the DAC, including information on all relevant laws, policies, practices, and future plans to implement;
- Provision of information on its development co-operation efforts, including annual statistics on ODA flows at activity level for at least 2 years ahead of accession;
- Regular participation in DAC meetings as well as meetings of subsidiary bodies of mutual interest as a Participant for at least two years.

In addition to the proposed conditions for Associate status, the DAC has also agreed to the following obligations to be applied equally to both OECD and non-OECD Members joining the DAC in DCD/DAC\(2023\)24/REV1:

- To adhere, at the time of their accession, to all legal instruments under the responsibility of the DAC<sup>1</sup> ;
- To maintain the capacity to participate in all meetings of the DAC and at least one of its subsidiary bodies;
- To participate a mid-term review within two years of accession and a peer review covering the full analytical framework within five years [\[DCD/DAC\(2020\)69/FINAL\]](#) if it has not conducted such a review as part of its accession to the DAC<sup>2</sup> ;
- To conduct a regular Peer Review of its development co-operation, in line with the methodology approved by the DAC, and to serve as an examiner in reviewing other DAC member programmes.
- To provide the annual submission of required official and private statistics which meet DAC requirements, reporting standards, and methods<sup>3</sup> ;
- To provide summary information to be included in the Development Co-operation Report on request.

<sup>2</sup> The peer review methodology sets out a comprehensive analytical framework (see [\[DCD/DAC\(2020\)69/FINAL\]](#)). According to the current peer review process, DAC members are not assessed against the full analytical framework but on a limited number of focus areas agreed at the inception of the peer review.
